Correspondence:

NEIC sent a Certificate of Occupancy for Thomas and Debra Honeyford for Big Tom's Auto Sales on Route 29.

The PA Dept. of Environmental Protection sent a copy of a letter to John Miller, Construction Manager for SWN. The letter concerns the application of a residual waste storage permit.

PSATS sent the Disclosure Statement for 2017 for the Municipal Pension Plan.

New Business:

Advertisement for bids were published in the Independent.

Jeanne and Angelo Grassi went to the Court House about the procedure to become the constable for the township. When paperwork is completed and returned, the court will be petitioned to appoint Angelo constable until the election is held.

Mark explained that the township's website has been hacked and therefore is not up and running at this time.

Fire contracts have been signed for United and Snake Creek. Jeanne will send the contract to Columbia Hose #1 for signatures.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeanne Sullivan

Secretary/Treasurer
